INWES APNN 2017 & GWST Announcement

Dear members of INWES APNN country

On behalf of Japan Network of Women Engineers and Scientists (JNWES), we are happy to announce INWES APNN (Asia Pacific Nation Network meeting) 2017 on July 14 (Fri) and GWST (Global Women in Science and Technology) on July 15 (Sat) in Yokohama Symposia, Yokohama City, Japan.

Theme of GWST is “STEM Women be Shine Globally! Your Dream Changes the World”
GWST conference provides opportunities for high school, undergraduate and graduate students to think together with engineers and scientists employed at companies, universities, and research institutes. GWST helps students to visualize their future STEM career globally in cooperation with representatives from participating countries and exchange students who attend INWES APNN 2017 meeting. Home page of APNN&GWST will be open in March.

JNWES will be in contact with you for more information soon. For inquiries, please contact jnwes.secretary@gmail.com

We are very excited about hosting the APNN meeting in Japan and expect your involvement in the GWST. We look forward to seeing you in July in Yokohama.

Yours Sincerely,
